

Born in 7/12/1963, US educated University of Virginia OLD DOMINION, holds an MBA and a BSc in Business Administration; bilingual English and Greek. Currently Senior Advisor at LEAD GROUP and LEAD Recovery Capital the first and only, until now, distress fund in Greece. Until late 2010, President & CEO, of First Mediterranean Investments (FMI), a holding company for a group of specialist investment companies focused on the South Eastern Mediterranean and Balkan regions. FMI's parent company, the LIBRA GROUP, is a modern international conglomerate. Libra's worldwide operations are diverse and its investments focus on long term returns. The Group subsidiaries are active in the fields of: Shipping; Aircraft Leasing; Energy; Hotel ownership and development; and Real estate ownership and development. Previously, until 2006, Director of NBGI PRIVATE EQUITY, the private equity and venture capital arm of the National Bank of Greece (the largest financial institution in south-eastern Europe), with over €500 ml under management. In 1999 – 2000, Manager at P&K SECURITIES one of the leading providers of integrated financial services in Greece. Reporting to the Managing Director, with responsibilities overall business development, coordinate the development of new representative offices and manage investment portfolios of key clients. From 1995 to 1999, Investment Manager at GLOBAL FINANCE, member of “LATSIS Group”, that pioneered venture capital and private equity in Greece. Before that (1993 – 1995) Consultant with KANTOR MANAGEMENT CONSULTANTS and Economist for DOXIADES ASSOCIATES (1992 - 1993).

Key Qualifications: Ten years of experience in Senior and Top Management positions; over fifteen years of extensive experience in the fields of Private Equity, Management, Investment Strategy and Corporate Finance. Actively engaged, since 1996, in PE, M&A, and Restructuring type of transactions. Specialized in: Investment Planning; Business Development; and Project Financing. Additional experience, in Portfolio and Project Management of various investment and infrastructure projects.